P R E F A C E.

The following pages contain what I have been able to gather of the history of the Goehring family. That part of the family history prior to their immigration to America is obtained from church records, and, as these were kept with care, the data given may be considered authentic. Other facts were learned from gravestones and the lips of older members of the family, many of whom are now dead. Some effort has been made to bring down the history of some branches of the family to a comparative recent period, but no pretense is made to this being either correct or complete, the only purpose in the writer being to assist different members of the family in tracing back their line of lineage. The chief object in reducing the information herein contained to print is the hope that by so doing it will be more readily preserved and be of assistance to some one who may hereafter desire to continue the history.

The Goehring family originally came from the small village of Albisheim, near the Rhine, and not far from the City of Worms, in Bavaria, Germany. This portion of the country was part of the Palitinate, which at the treaty of Luneville was ceded to France, but upon the fall of Napoleon was reacquired by Germany. The first mention in the church records of the Goehring name recites that one Wolfgang William Goehring, on November 24th, 1663, married Marie Margareta Beroz. For this reason we start Wolfgang William Goehring as of the first generation. As will be noted in the following family schedule the members of the fifth generation, to-wit: Henry William Goehring, John Goehring and John Jacob Goehring, came to America, with their families, between the years 1718 and 1721. They landed at Baltimore, some members of the families remaining there, others came on to Lancaster, Penna., and from there some came later to Beaver County, and others settled at Robbstown, now West Newton, Westmoreland County, Penna. Since that time the family has become numerous and are to be found in nearly all of the counties of Western Pennsylvania, and it is believed that all of that name trace their lineage back to one or other of the three brothers above named.
